About the Malaysian Society of Ophthalmic Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery (MSOPRS)

The Malaysian Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (MSOPRS) is Malaysia's national body representing ophthalmologists specializing in eyelid, orbit, and lacrimal surgery.

Established in 2020, MSOPRS evolved from the Malaysian Oculoplastic Interest Group (MOIG), formed under the Malaysian Society of Ophthalmology (MSO) in 2017. Over the years, it has nurtured professional growth, subspecialty training, and global collaboration in the field of oculoplastic surgery.

With vibrant activities and international affiliations — including the World Society of Ophthalmic Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery (WSOPRAS) — MSOPRS continues to promote education, research, and clinical excellence in Malaysia and beyond.

From our humble beginnings at MOC2018 in Kuala Lumpur to a growing international presence at MOC2024 in Penang, we are proud to bring together experts, trainees, and partners who share a passion for advancing the art and science of oculoplastic surgery.
